

Golden oldies ruled at the Princess Louise Park Show Centre

Sussex, NB – May 18, 2008 – The annual Antique Tractor Power Show attracted hundreds of spectators throughout the week-end. Toddlers to senior citizens shared a fascination with antique tractors that had been lovingly restored to better-than-new condition.

Sunday afternoon spectators gathered in the Princess Louise Park Show Centre arena to witness the tractor haul event. The antique tractors competed against each other in size categories pulling a sled laden with heavy weights across the arena. The tractor that pulled the heaviest weight the furthest in each category was declared the winner. It's all about bragging rights.

Coming up at the PLP Show Centre...

Dell Hendricks from Texas, a Team Gold Medal winner from the 2006 World Equestrian Games, will be conducting a training clinic for aspiring Reiners at the Show Centre Wednesday through Friday, May 21st to 23rd. Then, on the week-end the garb goes from chambray to top hats as dressage riders from throughout the Maritimes compete for two days.

Rounding out the month, there'll be a draft horse show on May 31st / June 1st featuring representatives of most of the major draft breeds.
